CITY HOSPITAL WILL REQUIRE OVER $200,000

Increase of $80,000 Over the Estimate of the Past Year.

WORK VERY HEAVY

And All Sorts of Supplies
High—More Pay is Needed.

At first glance, the report of the City Hospital, presented at the annual meeting of the Hospital Board yesterday afternoon, was shocking. The report showed that the institution had expended the estimate of last year by nearly $200,000. Although it is true that such is the case, the hospital is in a position where it is not in a position to do so.

The report of the Board of Governors and Dr. Langrill have been taken to the Board of the City Hospital, which is a body of nine members, and the Board of the City Hospital, which is a body of nine members, and the Board of the City Hospital, which is a body of nine members.

The difference between the actual expenditure of last year, $175,000 and the estimate of $155,000, is $20,000. This is a considerable sum, but the estimate for this year is $180,000, which is a considerable sum, but the estimate for this year is $180,000, which is a considerable sum.

MEANS FOR PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT

Mr. Russell Trelawney, a layman from Ryerson Church, was the first speaker called upon. "There must be a practical application of the principles of Christianity to the problems of the world, if the church is to succeed. It is not enough to say 'I am a Christian' and to do nothing. It is all our lives, and so accordingly I appeal to you all. Be strong in your stewardship."

Rev. Dr. Spaulding, pastor of Central Methodist Church, was then called upon to speak on behalf of the spiritual mission. "This appeal is based on the fact that the church is not a mere social club, but a body of men and women who are called to live a life of service to the world."

At the close of the meeting, which lasted about two hours, the church was closed. The service was a most successful one, and the church was well represented.

Something About the New President of France

As to the political temperament of Paul Deschanel, the new President of the French Republic, about which so many are wondering, it may be said he is a progressive conservative, or what is called a "liberal" in France.

Deschanel's conservatism was always an object and largely a result of the war, yet the actual conflict and the responsibility it imposed changed him in many of his beliefs, so that, like Lloyd George, of England, it was difficult to place him just at this time.

LODGE IS FIRM ON ARTICLE TEN

And Bi-Partisan Negotiations
Are Ended.

Republicans Reject Taft Reservation.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The unofficial bi-partisan negotiations on reservations to the Peace Treaty suddenly came to an end to-day when the Senate rejected the Taft reservation on Article 10, walked out of the conference and announced they would seek some other method of obtaining ratification.

The final break came when Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, refused to accept a reservation to Article 10 drafted by the Democrats.

President Taft and presented to the Senate a reservation to Article 10, which was rejected by the Senate.

The United States declines to assume any legal or binding obligation to preserve the territorial integrity of political independence of any other country under the provisions of Article 10, or to employ the military or naval forces of the United States under any article of the treaty, for any purpose, but the Congress, which under the constitution has the sole power in the premises, will consider and decide what moral obligation, if any, under the circumstances of any particular case, when it arises, should move the United States in the interest of world peace and justice, to take action thereon, and will provide accordingly.

Senator Lodge, in a statement, declared that he was unable to agree to any changes in reservations two and five dealing with Article 10 and the Monroe Doctrine. He added: "In my opinion, reservation number three, which provides that we shall assume no obligation of any kind under Article 10, except the one mentioned in the treaty, that we should ourselves respect the boundaries of other nations, cannot possibly permit of change."

The change proposed in reservation number five, in regard to the Monroe Doctrine, was an absolutely new one, because it was asserted as an official interpretation by the representatives of Great Britain, under the treaty, was to be interpreted by the league. For if, for one, could never assert, and in view of the statement made in Paris by the British delegation, to which it was referred, it was in line which it was proposed to strike out as absolutely necessary.

The United States has always in the past been a firm supporter of the Monroe Doctrine, and it is not likely that it will ever be otherwise.

PURPOSES AND SCOPE OF COMBINES MUST BE STATED

Board of Commerce Order Asks Objects of Operations of All Such Bodies

Definitions Given--Time Set Before Which Information Must be Given

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—The Board of Trade of the Dominion of Canada has today issued a series of regulations which have reference to the formation and operation of combines as defined in the Combines and Fair Prices Act.

The intended issue of these regulations was forecast by Mr. J. H. Little, head of the board, at a public hearing held December 27, 1918, at Toronto.

The regulations, after referring to sections 4 and 5 of the Combines and Fair Prices Act and incorporating the definition of a combine as set forth in the Act, relating to the use of the expression "combine," as used in the regulations, state that the regulations as attached to that expression in the Act, provide so as to compel the making of a declaration of full disclosure in writing signed by those concerned as to the object, purpose and effect of the combination.

The regulations are quite comprehensive and cover a wide range of matters which have relation to any article of commerce. The expression "article of commerce" is defined to mean not only mergers, trusts and monopolies, but also all agreements or arrangements of any kind or character which are to be charged by any person for an article of commerce or whereby any person or firm is to be benefited. Where agreements or arrangements as to price or prices of articles of commerce are made in writing or orally a copy must be filed with the Board, together with a list of the persons or firms who are parties to the same.

LOEW'S

Members of last lot of show who came to the house on Monday and who are coming all week long, will take the boards at Loew's next week. Fascinating, Constance Talmadge, as the arduous husband-hunter in "A Virtuous Vamp," will be the big attraction on the screen; while The Love Race, a lively musical comedy, with clever comedians, a dainty prima donna, and a host of variety and pretty dances will hold the house.

What is virtue in a vamp? Constance Talmadge answers that! And in the solving of this problem the Irish, captivating young star appears just about all the laughs and thrills that any picture fans ever had in any of the past few weeks.

The dancing Constance takes the part of a girl whose family fortune is a flop, and it becomes up to her to find sustenance. Glendora's rampant proclivities first become apparent when she was two years old, when she induced a member of the fire department to kiss her, and for saving the lives of herself and her family. As she blossomed in to girlhood, her same insouciance turned to glendora Diana Beaufort, Armagnac, daughter of one of the noblest families in the United States. Fallen fortunes, induced by a fire, and to early forth with her purse full of letters of recommendation. When she visits the office of a wealthy broker, she finds that it is necessary to become plain "Nellie Jones" in order to get a job there, her society recommendations having no influence at all with the business hour at the head of the firm. Although her work is more than satisfactory her captivating smile, and in fact her beauty, has proved a demerit in the office. Transferred from job to job, she finally lands in the office of the head of the firm himself, who is thoroughly disgusted with the love-love males who have succeeded so completely to her charms. So he undertakes to dictate a sign letter with no more consideration for the alibi of office fairness. Up to this time, Nellie's sunny smiles have all been without intent. But now—she experiences a desire to make a conquest of her employer, with whom she has fallen really in love.

A famous "humane" dancer who wants to take out a big insurance policy on her life, and the desire of the broker to learn for himself just what this strange dancer may be, is the reason for Nellie's being employed to a famous jazz parlor, where the ship life is shaken to perfection. This little bit is significant, because it leads to a dozen others. The climax is reached when a smart-alek brother of Nellie's precipitates things, and every body is in a hurry and unusual way.

Headed by Jack Hallan, and assisted by Len Harris, Eddie Carlson and a rosy-faced chorus of mischievous, youthful and very pretty girls, the grand finale of the show is a grand, smart, riotous, and graceful dances known as the Love Race will thoroughly fit into honor place on the vaudeville portion of the bill, and will give opportunities for a display of the very considerable abilities of all the members of the whirled cast, which has the reputation of possessing a half dozen or more of the loveliest girls in vaudeville.

Gordon and Palmer, snappy singers of snappy songs, will present their unique offering, entitled "Bliss in the Blues." Puppin and Perry, artists who excel in their knowledge of the violin and the accordion, will charm with their classical and popular airs; John and Davis, eccentric funsters, with a horn of new tricks, and Charley and Mayne Butler, with their versatile

During the Kiddie's various United States tours they created such a furore, that theatre managers wired about to friendly managers to be sure and book this show. "They're the biggest drawing card we ever had," is what managers told each other.

HAPPY "DOUG" COMING TO LOEW'S.

Week after next that of the screen, Douglas Fairbanks, equipped with a brand-new picture-play, but with the same toothsome smile and cherry way, will top Loew's screen bill. When the Clouds Roll By is the picture favorite's latest vehicle, and it's a bummer! It's all the best rolled into a half dozen snappy reels; thought, love-making, wholesome philosophy and novelties in one else five thought.

GRAND

The funniest and fastest juvenile show in the world is booked for the Grand Opera House all next week. Canadian you don't believe their country can produce the best stage talent on the globe are due for a big surprise when they see the Winnie Kiddies, who have smashed records to raise funds for patriotic purposes in 1915. They played in the villages and small towns, undergoing many hardships in winter time, and always working for nothing. Generally the theatre and all other accessories were donated also to the cause. In this work two of the Kiddies have lost their lives by drowning, and one lost an eye. They grew in numbers and talent until they began touring the big cities only, and when the United States entered the war they made several American tours for recruiting purposes by special request of American military authorities. They were foud and entertained by governors of States and many other high dignitaries, and always the theatres were packed to the doors. In one big American city business was paid one hundred dollars raised in that town alone in three days being more than twelve thousand dollars.

The Winnie Kiddies were always kept too busy in the West to be able to visit the East, but they're coming now. The war being over, they are on a commercial basis—and this time is better than ever because of their many years' experience.

"CHU CHIN CHOW" COMING.
"Chu Chin Chow," the gorgeous and beautifully staged musical extravaganza of the Orient, which ran an entire season in New York at the Century theatre, will be presented by P. Ray Comstock and Morris Cost at the Grand Opera House, Hamilton, Ont., week of February 16th, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday. The coming of this brilliant pageant of ancient staged, on a scale of superlative magnificence will unquestionably rank as one of the most important events of many theatrical seasons.

"Chu Chin Chow" is now in the fourth year of its amazing run at His Majesty's theatre, London. It was produced there in 1916 by Oscar Asche, the author, in association with the late Sir Herbert Tree, and has been presented continuously, in spite of air raids, rebellion, bombs, the war, and all other obstacles, holding all present the long-distance record for all of the London productions. Two years ago P. Ray Comstock and Morris Cost presented "Chu Chin Chow" in New York, with scenery and costumes made by the original producers in London, imported in spite of the submarine menace. "Chu Chin Chow" proved a gorgeous revelation for American audiences and not only a piece production and cast from the Century theatre is being presented on tour, the biggest of travelling organizations, in 14 scenes and with a company of 200 people.

"Chu Chin Chow" is a romance of ancient Baghdad of a thousand years ago and tells the story of Ali Hassan, the robber chief, who disguises himself as Chu Chin Chow, the rich Chinese merchant, and enters Baghdad to rob Kasim Baba, a wealthy miser, and to raid the slave market. His plans are foiled by Zahret, the desert woman, a slave who brings about his downfall, but not until 14 brilliant and wonderful scenes with music, dance and pageant have been unfolded. The music by Frederick Norton is especially alluring and beautiful, and there are 18 musical hits in the score. There are 663 dazzling and brilliant costumes, and the cast is a magnificent parade of fashion models of ancient Baghdad that exhibits some of the most beautiful costumes ever designed, one critic declaring that the whole next week's bill in A Papaeria of Chatting, Song and Dance, as paprika adds zest to food, it has also spiced up the offering, making it as palatable an offering as has ever been served.

The Hokey Troupe, six in number, one of the biggest dancing acts in vaudeville, will make a splendid addition to the bill, and will give something really out of the ordinary. The act is most elaborately staged, and critics who know have applauded it as just about the most pretentious attraction of the kind exploited in vaudeville in many years.

Eleanor Cochran will be another big drawing card in a high class singing act. She has all the qualities that contribute to the success of a first class artist, fine appearance, a magnetic personality and a voice of wonderful power and sweetness.

Here is something new in vaudeville and another angle to vaudeville. It is called from New Orleans is the up-to-date satire which Fred Wallace and company play to perfection. The act is a new and original one, and the hubby's business and relegates him to the domestic tasks. There is a husband's union, however, which friend husband joins. Finally a walking delegate brings them to the next scene and they form a union of their own. The idea is good, cleverly worked out and full of fun. The act is a fine example of humorous writing. In brief it is a dandy little sketch, splendidly acted.

Loe Reed and Al Tucker appear in a play, Pull of Pep, and that describes them nicely. They are violinists and eccentric dancers and they play and sing all at the same time. Mr. Reed was formerly of Reed and Wright and Mr. Tucker has been a stage of prominence for some time.

Camilla's birds are an aggregation of feathered actors that are said to be as superior to similar players as Mr. Mansfield was to Roddy Ham. The birds are Australian cockatoos, and they present an eight-act vaudeville show. They work on a circular track which is very unusual. The stage setting is exceedingly handsome and in every respect the act is above the average.

The feature picture will be Anna Case in the six-reel photoplay, "The Hidden Truth."

STECHER

Stecher of Nebraska Defeated Caddock in Two Hours' Wrestling

Iowa Boy Put up a Great Struggle Before He Succumbed to the Body Scissors Hold

Newark, Jan. 30.—Joe Stecher, of Nebraska, to-night won heavyweight championship at catch-as-catch-can by defeating Earl Caddock, of Iowa, with a body scissors and arm lock after more than two hours of wrestling.

While Caddock conceded twenty pounds in weight to Nebraska, he put up a magnificent battle, and it was not until within five minutes of the end that his opponent gained a decisive advantage.

THIS HOLD THAT WINS.

Just before the close of the second hour Stecher secured a body scissors and wrist lock after Caddock had made a supreme but futile effort to obtain a half nelson. Caddock brought the spectators to their feet when he broke the double hold as his left shoulder was hardly an inch from the mat for a pin fall. The effort had, however, apparently exhausted him, for a moment later he was unable to get up from the mat, and this time both his shoulders went to the mat.

Madison Square Garden was thronged to its capacity when the notes of a fan announced the arrival of Stecher, escorted by a number of blackjacks, a reminder that the champion was the champion of the world. The sound of trumpets from the other end of the Garden heralded the arrival of Earl Caddock, who was escorted by several of his former comrades in the United States army.

Stecher had the advantage in height. Both were very cautious at the start

With the Puck Chasers

Galt, Jan. 30.—Kitchener intermediates lived up to past records here to-night, when they defeated the local team by a score of 10 to 5, and thereby won the game, making it unnecessary to play off the disputed game on which Galt yesterday won its point.

The largest crowd in years witnessed a hard-fought battle, the visitors being accompanied by a large number of supporters. Galt, who had played the game in the first period, outplaying the visitors at all stages and scoring three of their goals. However, they did not look like the team, and in the second period, the better of the play, outchecking the local steadily.

The game on left wing was the hero, scoring the winning goal. The eleventh goal was scored in a scrimmage off a Galt player's skate.

The locals have only themselves to blame for their defeat, as they played poor defensive game after obtaining a big lead in the first period. Krug, who played well for the visitors, also did Jamieson, McCulloch, and Watts, the latter getting two goals on his own. The team's defense, while Galt played a hard game that would have won the game for them.

Bobby Eber Easily Beat Teddy Joyce

Schoell and Bull Went Ten Rounds to a Draw

Toronto, Jan. 30.—Four good exhibitions of boxing were run off at Massey Hall last night. The first bout of the evening was between Eddie Gallagher, of Hamilton, and "Kid" Gold, of Toronto. Both lads came out freely and exchanged blows for five rounds, and the decision was a draw. The second bout, ten rounds, 125 pounds, between Jimmy Goodrich, of Buffalo, and "Scotty" Limer, of Toronto. Limer was a little over weight, but he was able to stand up under terrific punishment, and coming back to ask for more.

Bobby Eber and Teddy Joyce, the whole ten rounds of their bout. It was Eber all the way. He is too clever for the local pugilist, who depends altogether on a layman's white Eber has a variety of leads which Eber was unable to guard himself against.

Ten rounds of some of the finest boxing seen here. The third bout, ten rounds, 125 pounds, between Schoell, of Buffalo, and Frankie Bull, of Toronto—resulted in a draw. It was a close, hard-fought battle, and the decision was a draw.

Boy From Highfield Stars in Game

R. M. C. won their hockey match from Queen's on Wednesday night, in a fast game of hockey in Kingston. The Cadets put up a strong game, and the visitors were unable to score a goal. The game was a close one, and the decision was a draw.

City Teams Play on Monday

Monday night's games in the City Hockey League will mark the beginning of the series of games to decide the championship. The teams are scheduled to meet Queen's-Toronto, the first game, St. Patricks will cross sticks with the Beavers in the second game, and the third and last battle will bring Linkers and Sawyer-McCoy.

Kingscote Won

Sydney, Australia, Jan. 30.—The Australian singles tennis championship, Kingscote of England, defeated Pollock of Australia. Patterson, the local champion, retired in an early round.

Pull, and Pull Hard For Tigers

The Tiger hockey team, accompanied by a great crowd of fans, left the city at 4.25 this afternoon, via the C. P. R., for the game with the Donkeys to-night. Every player on the team is in the pink of condition and ready for the battle of life. The fans who could not go to Toronto because of the cold of seas are lending their spirit, anyway, both to the lucky rovers and the players.

"Sammy" Manson, manager of the Tigers, gave out a bit of good advice this morning to the fans who are going to Toronto, and who have not been able to get seats. They will have to get to the Toronto Arena early if they want to see the game, and they must be very early to see the Tooth Pullers during the Tigers' own sticks, some of the fans will be found camped near the Arena early this evening.

The game between the Tigers and Kitchener next Tuesday night at the local Arena is arousing a great deal of interest, for the team from the north are a strong opposition, and can give any team in the senior O. H. A. a good battle for their money.

Sporting Comment

Hundreds of hockey fans accompanied the Tiger team to Toronto to-day and are prepared to shout their lungs out to help along the Yellow and Black squad. The local fans are game, for many of them did not have reserved seats in the Toronto Arena because the Agent directors only allowed 200 seats for Hamiltonians, and so they will have to take their places in the line-up for the run and see in the weather it will be no joke. That big enthusiasm in the hearts of the lovers of hockey and the ambition to win, keeps out the cold.

Bobby Eber made a show of Ted Joyce, the Toronto bantam, at the bouts held in Toronto last night. Eber could not put over R. E. O., but he made a show of Ted Joyce, the Toronto bantam, at the bouts held in Toronto last night. Eber could not put over R. E. O., but he made a show of Ted Joyce, the Toronto bantam, at the bouts held in Toronto last night.

"Eddie" Gallagher, "Rank" Woods' good featherweight, fought a draw with "Kid" Gold, the Toronto lad who gave Bobby Eber such a good bout some weeks ago. Both boys mixed it freely and exchanged blow for blow. Gallagher's next bout will be here at the U. V. L. home on February 6.

The Westinghouse Baseball club held a very successful dance in the L.O.O.F. Temple last night. The club will be in the baseball fight again this year.

Milton and Burlington, who played to a 3-3 tie at Burlington last night, are still tied for the honors in their O.H.A. group. The team from Burlington, who played a superb game, was played by over 1,200 rabid rovers, 300 of whom came from Milton, a suburb of Georgetown.

Racing Investigation Showed Thoroughbred's Essential to Country

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—That the Windsor and Fort Erie race courses were "retrograde tracks," are reported to give citizens of Detroit and Buffalo an opportunity for gambling, was the allegation of Mr. John M. Godfrey, counsel for the Social Service Council of Canada, at the closing session of the investigation this afternoon. Citizens of the United States who were precluded from race course gambling by the laws of that country merely looked the better and undisturbed that pastime on Canadian soil. The Fort Erie course, he declared, was run by professional gamblers. The Hamilton course, he said, appeared to be a gambling proposition. Run by a German-American named Schmidt. Godfrey said that at Toronto, where he said, undoubtedly run by respectable gentlemen, but had in the past made corrupt rackets. Mr. Godfrey had no fault to find with Connaught Park at Ottawa, Blue Bird course at Montreal, save that these courses operated pari-mutuel machines. These state-run courses were made in his statement, which closed the hearings. Proceeding to the second session of the investigation, Mr. Godfrey made his report to Parliament. Sam McBride told Commissioner Rutherford that if the horse racing was closed "you might as well say good-bye to the standard-bred horse." He also took issue with the expression to the "gambling" of the horse racing. "People did not call that speculation 'gambling'." The expression was designated "breeding." BUSINESS AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISING LOCAL AND FOREIGN SECTIONS

MARKET TO BAD

Small Supply and Few Buyers Out.

Eggs Were Inclined to Be Cheaper.

Saturday, Jan. 31.—With country trade in a rough condition, and the extreme cold accompanied by a sharp wind, few farmers came to market today. There was a very small supply of apples and pears on the market. The supply of pears was fairly large, but there were very few buyers, and it looked as if many of the most vendors would have to take home their loads or dispose of them in some other way. Eggs of which the supply was small, sold at from 15 to 20 cents.

Very Careful in Matter of Stock Loans.

Decline of Foreign Exchange Continues.

New York, Jan. 31.—(Weekly Letter).—The market this week ceased to be a struggle between the bulls and the bears, but it was a struggle between the bulls and the bears, and it was a struggle between the bulls and the bears.

Cash Oats Bringing a Very High Price.

Immense Business on the Railways.

(Supplied by Tompkins, Forwood & Co., Merchants Bank Bldg.)

Chicago, Jan. 31.—A mixed situation existed in the corn market late yesterday. Those bullish asserted that it had made all the advance it was entitled to, and the price was a break was due. They pointed to the sharp break in May prices at the last week's closing as evidence that the market was taking a turn for the better.

Mild weather has enabled the railroads to move freight more freely the last few days, and while there is improvement in the car situation, there is an immense business of all kinds being handled by the western and eastern railroads. Eastern lines are taking a little freight from Western connections but embargo remains. With a few weeks of good weather, the railroads will be able to say there will be a betterment in service as motive power will be able to do more work.
